Excellence of tradition is a unique quality of RJR that commands love and respect from students, faculty, and other high schools as well. It is not only the blend of age, beauty, and superb academics that enhances her tradition; it is the people, our Reynolds Demons.

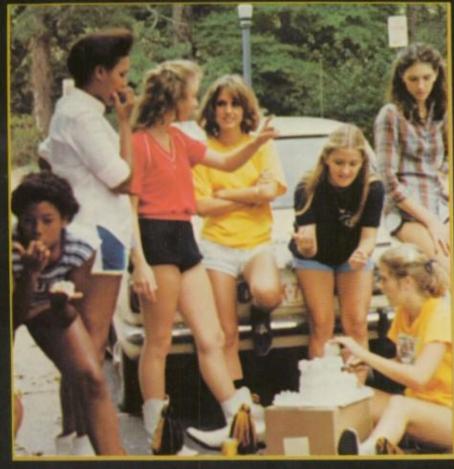

A Reynolds student progresses in his education, yet what we as students are taught does not always deal with books and numbers. The laughs, the jokes, the friendships and tears are not official courses, but what we learn from these subjects registers a mark not on paper, but in our hearts.

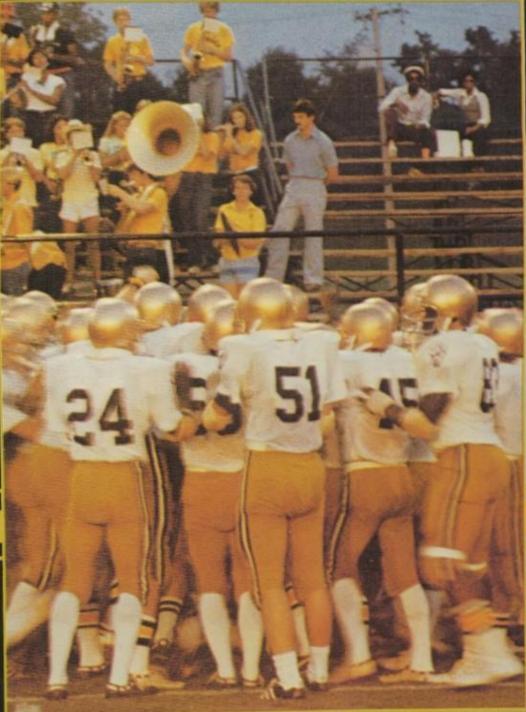

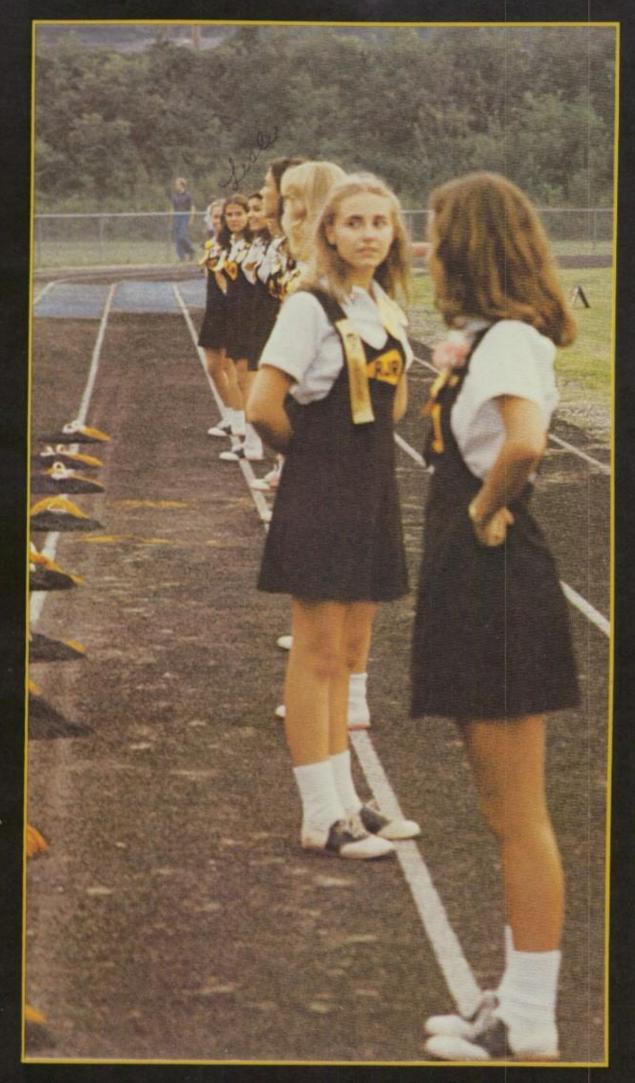

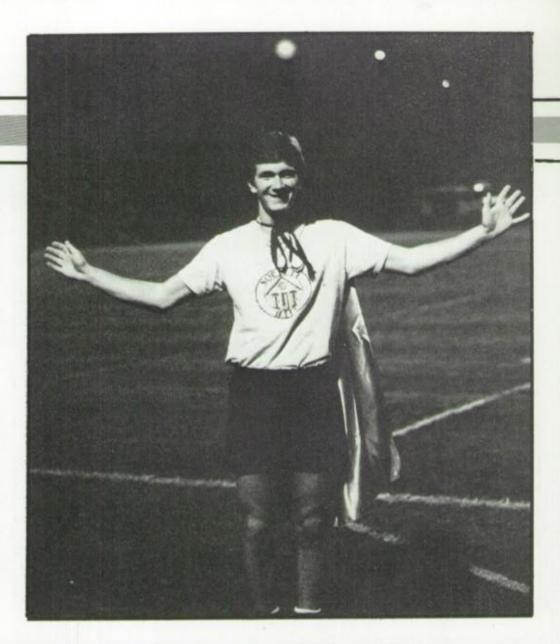

The demon has represented Reynolds for fifty-six years, standing as the symbol of our pride and relentless fighting spirit. The demon spirit is the catalyst which sparks our ambitious attacks in sports and supports our extracurricular activities. This spirit develops into a keen attitude that reflects our outlook and performance in all the services we perform for Reynolds. As the Alma Mater clearly says, "Our school of great tradition gives us all ambition." It could not be said any better.

The demon spirit and Reynolds tradition join together forming the main artery that gives life to RJR DEMON TRADITION. To focus on the one aspect of Reynolds that makes it one of the finest high schools in North Carolina, one must fully realize our demon tradition.

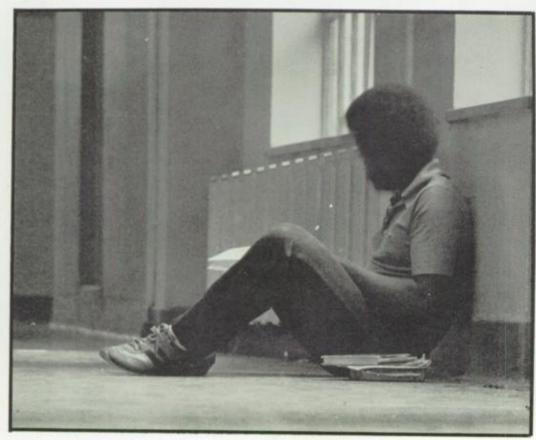

Demon Tradition is the new face we meet, then never see again. It is the night we all cried when the game was lost. Or it is the time when we won and all was good. It is the party that lasted until two o'clock and the special time devoted to a close friend. It is all and everything we have done during the two short years at Reynolds.

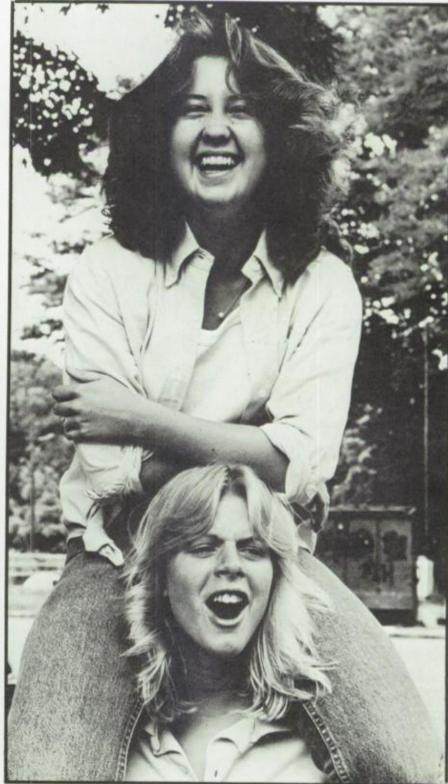

Tradition is the ideal, and the demon spirit is the drive. Can this part of us be taken away? The full impact of our years at Reynolds may not be totally acknowledged until later when we've left her arms forever.

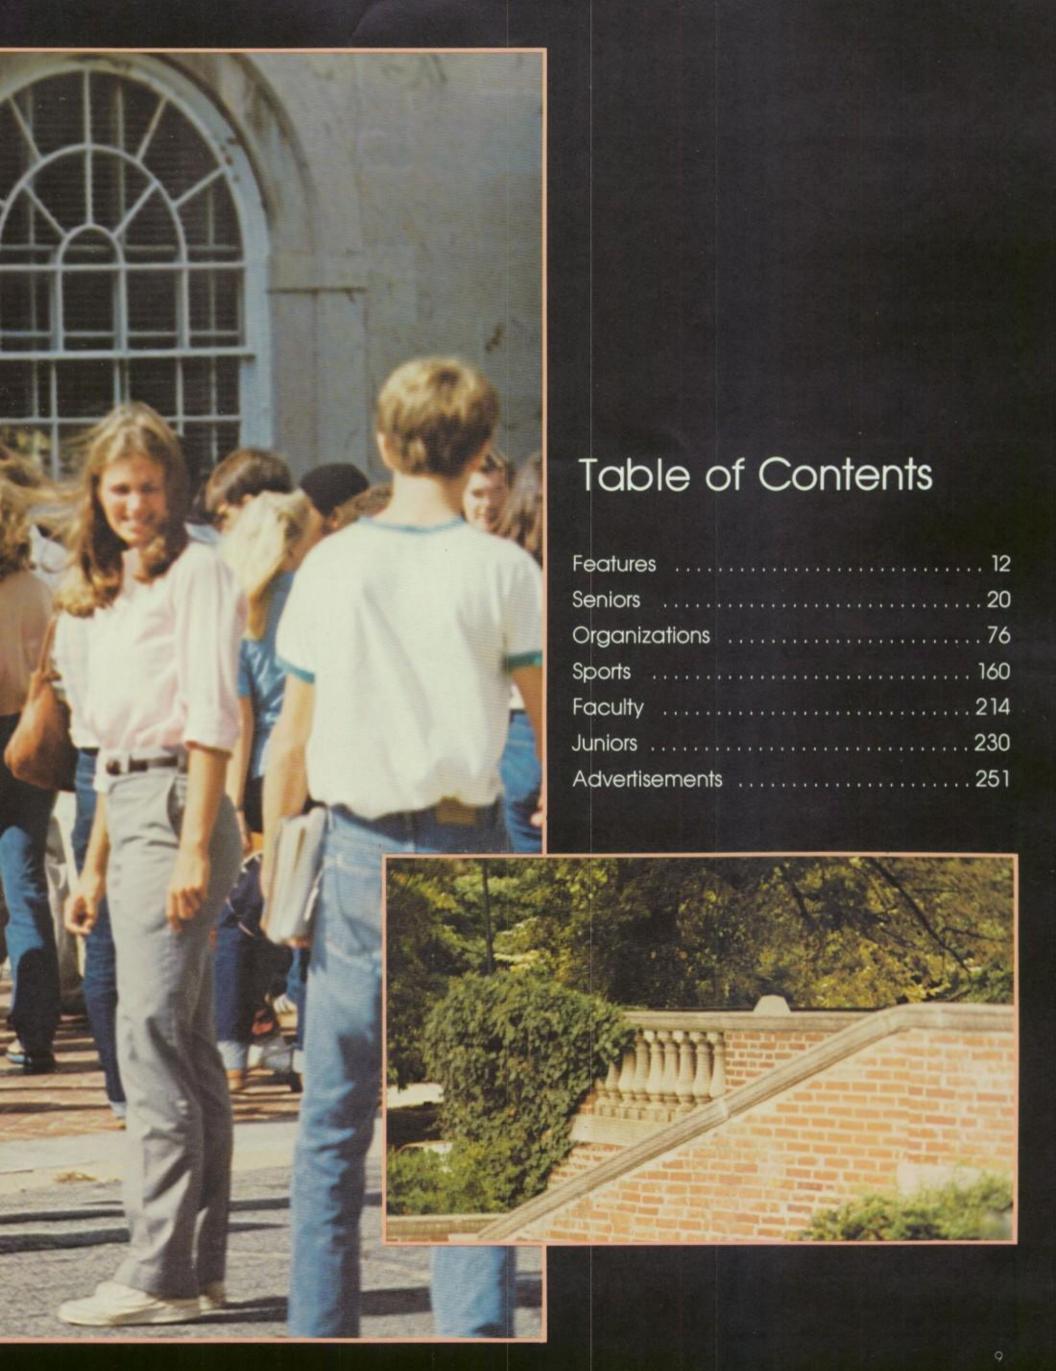

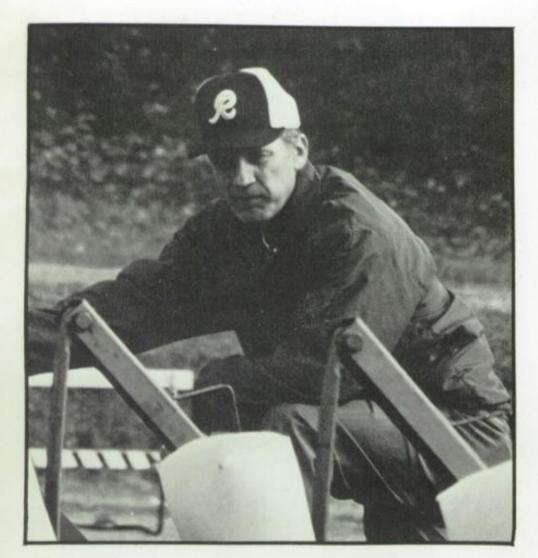

DEDICATION

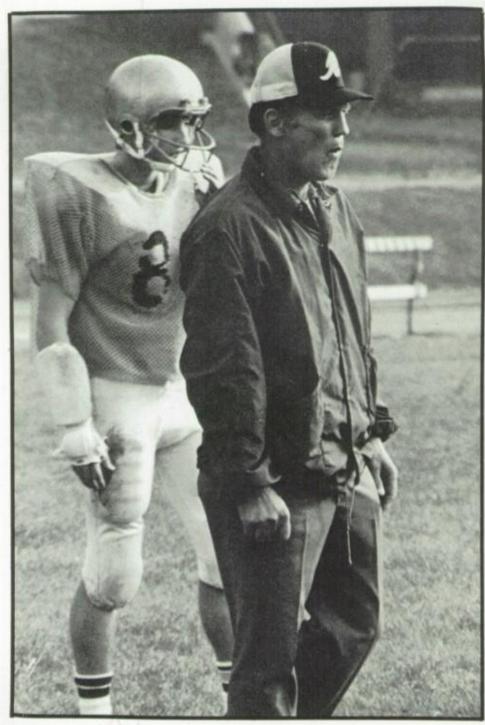

"The students here at R.J.R... seem to be enthusiastic about learning and seem to have the same deep indescribable feeling for Reynolds that I have maintained since I graduated from this school in years past."

Willson Alexander considers his students an inspiration. He enjoys seeing young people grow as individuals as well as watching them as they mature in their thinking and actions. Undoubtedly, this is why he is both respected and accepted as a friend by the student body.

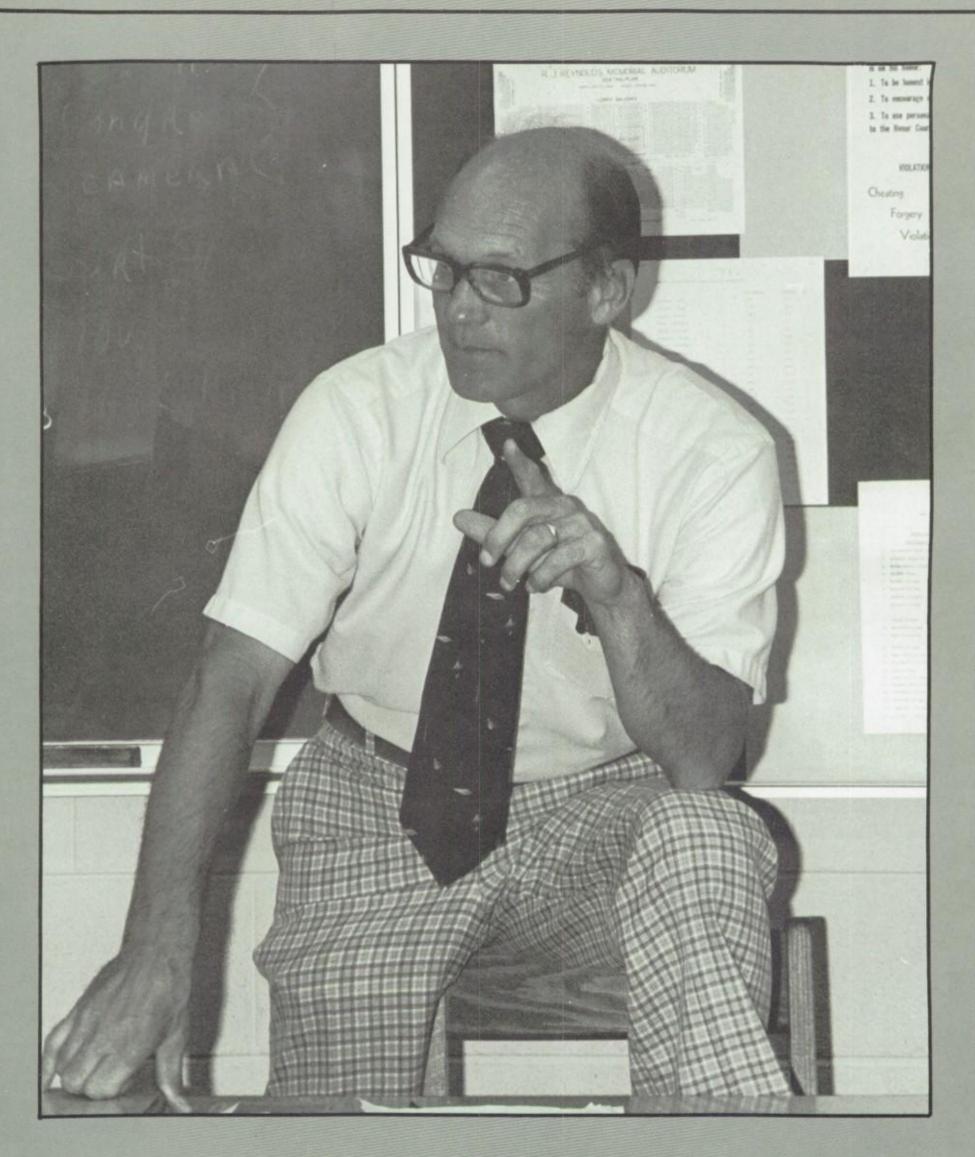

Mr. Alexander has been teaching for twenty-five years. He began his teaching career here at Reynolds High School in the late fifties. Since then, he has taught at several area schools including Hanes High School, Mount Tabor High School, and North Forsyth High School. For the past five years, he has been a part of our Social Studies Department. Mr. Alexander teaches a variety of courses: Pre-Twentieth Century America, Twentieth Century America, Contemporary American Society, Government and Political Action, and Today's Government.

In addition to teaching, Mr. Alexander is involved with Reynolds athletics. In past years, he has coached a variety of sports including football, basketball, baseball, track, and wrestling. This year he has assisted in the coaching of the football team, as well as the baseball team.

Mr. Alexander, often referred to as "Coach," has contributed to Reynolds High School not only his teaching and coaching ability, but also his humor and spirit. Since he is an alumnus as well as a faculty member, Reynolds High School is more to him than a physical structure. He acknowledges the special feelings he has toward our school. With great honor and pleasure, the Senior Class of 1980 dedicates this sixty-ninth volume of the Black and Gold to Mr. Willson Alexander.

Homecoming 1979 proved to be one of the best ever. For the first time in several years, Reynolds won their Homecoming football game. The Demons scored the first touchdown. Smith came back to tie the game in the third quarter. Enthusiastic students, as well as alumni, parents, teachers, and other fans, cheered as Reynolds rallied to defeat the Eagles 14-7.

The half-time festivities sparkled with smiling faces and flashing cameras as the Homecoming queens and court members were announced. Kim Penn, sponsored by Preston Starks, and Patricia Stinson, sponsored by Steve Peterson, were crowned as the 1979 Black and Gold queens. The court members were Joanie Beck, Joan Brewer, Leslie Dawson, Sharon Mason, and Lisa Voiers.

The Homecoming dance sponsored by the Key Club, was well attended and provided a perfect ending to the day's activities. Over 200 students, dressed in everything from suits to blue jeans, gathered in the girls' gym to listen and dance to a variety of pop, soul, and beach music.

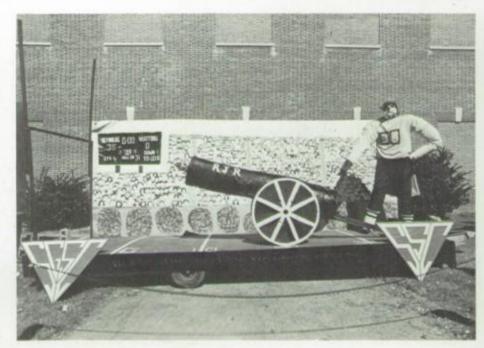

Homecoming 1979

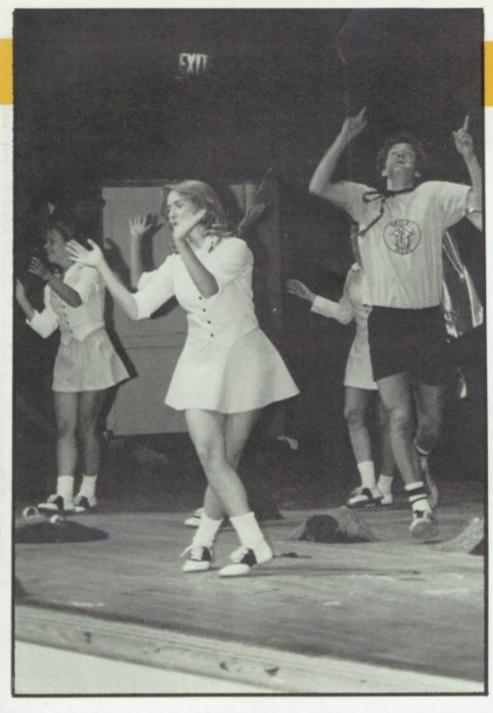

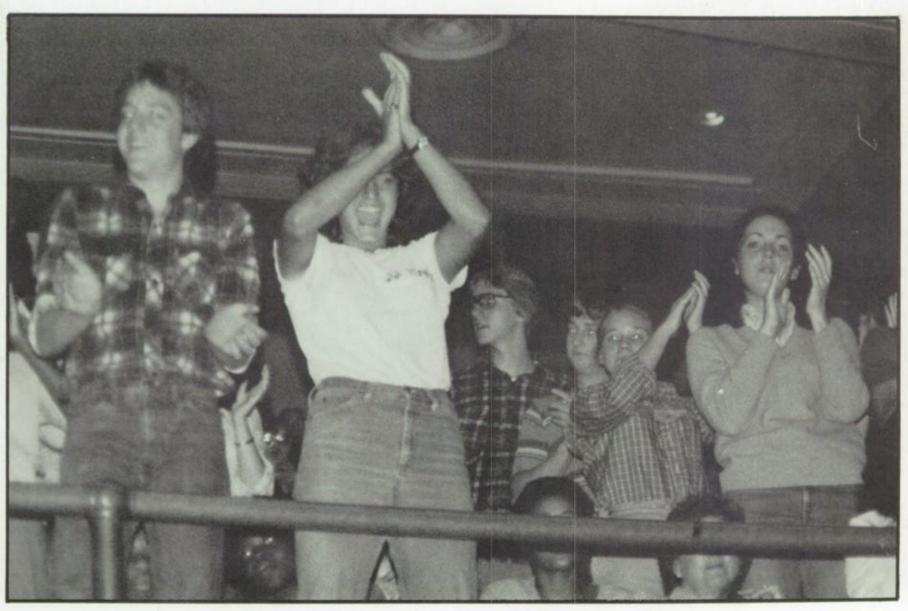

Before the sun even hinted of rising, Reynolds students arrived on campus to assemble and put the finishing touches on their organization's Homecoming project. For weeks, the service clubs and the band and the Dancing Boot members had worked to create the most original and creative floats. The culmination of their efforts was presented to the student body in the horseshoe early Friday morning. The sleep-starved students dragged through the day in anxious expectation of the afternoon pep rally, when the winning floats would be announced. Members of RGC and the Junior Civitans were elated to hear that their float, entitled "Bald the Eagles," was voted the best. The Anchor Club took second place, and SGSC and SSC came in third.

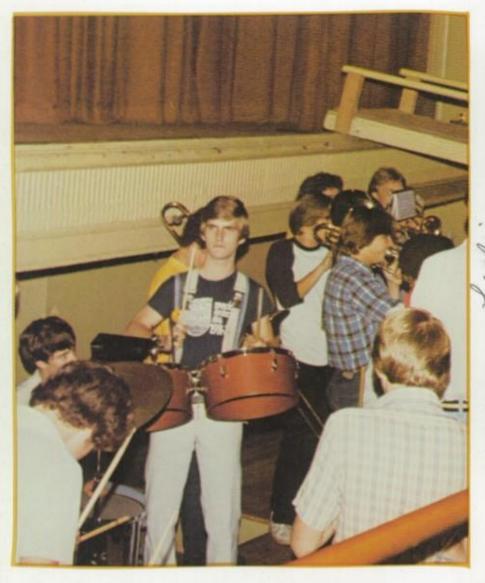

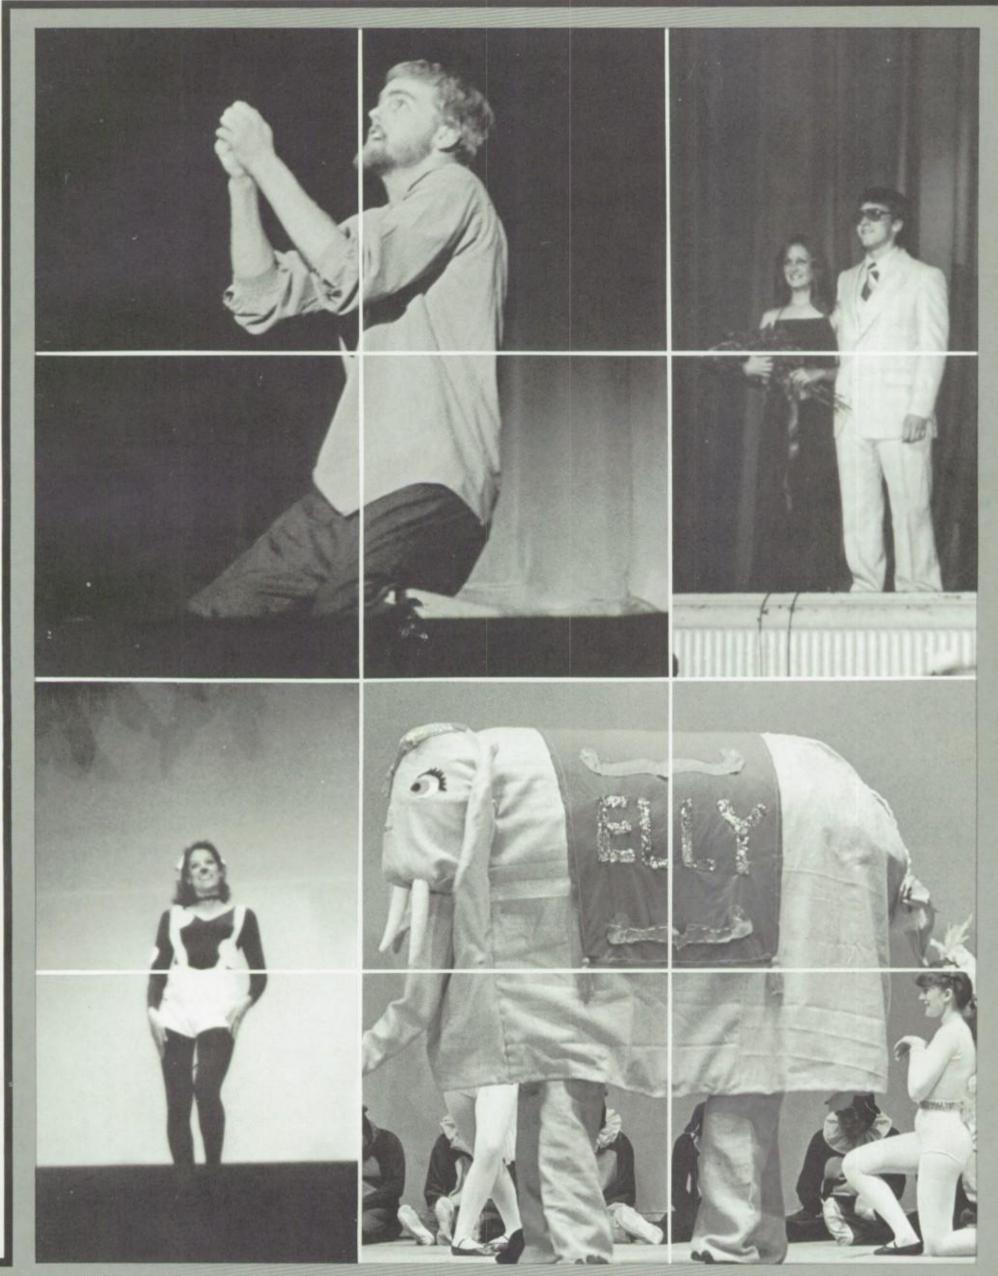

Pep Rallies contributed much to school spirit this year. Led by the cheerleaders, the student body yelled and clapped enthusiastically. The Dancing Boots performed outstandingly. The band added to the excitement by playing such traditional tunes as "Shine", "Go, Black Demons, Go!" and "Free Ride." Although discouraged by faculty members, class rivalry continued this year. It was not uncommon for students to engage in "Seniors-Juniors" chants.

FOLLIES FOLLIE

Key Club Follies

A Cherished Tradition

Sponsored annually by the Key Club, the Follies have become a tradition at Reynolds. The 1980 theme, "Still Crazy After All These Years," related many perspectives, feelings, and expressions about the close of the decade. A committee composed of faculty members and students selected 16 acts out of the more than 60 which auditioned. Hours of practice went into each act and the result was a fine display of student talent. With graduation only two months away, the Follies are the last major event in which the seniors participate together. The evenings of March 21 and 22 were highlighted by the antics of emcees Tommy Doughton and Eric Hager. The program was as follows:

Act I

Jess Perry and Melanie Sizemore Cheerleaders Gray Twins

Lyn Taylor and Ginny Goodwin

Magic's Finest Dancing Boots

Act II

Sallie Duckett - Editor

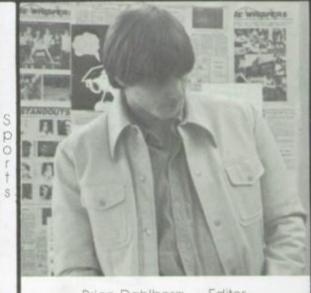

Gold is a challenging task. After learning the basics of cropping photographs, writing copy, drawing layouts, and laying borders, the journalism students design each page of the annual. The completed layouts are submitted to the publisher. The result of their long hours of hard work? A yearbook which captures permanently the memorable moments in a year at R.J. Reynolds High School.

The Pine Whispers staff has worked hard this year to inform the student body of the activities of RJR. This year's staff produced the first sixteen page issue in four years and participated in various group activities relating to journalism such as the Piedmont Journalism Workshop in Greensboro, N.C. and the N.C. Scholastic Press Institute in Chapel Hill. The advisor for the Pine Whispers staff is Diane Bunn.

Quill and Scroll is an honorary organization made up of students who demonstrate excellent skills in journalism. Members must excel academically and work on either the "Pine Whispers" or "Black and Gold" staff.

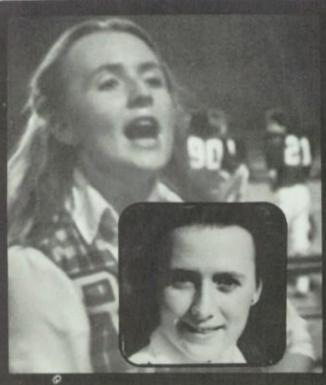

This year's cheerleading squads, the Varsity led by Joanie Beck and the Junior Varsity led by Wendy Hall, added their support to the athletic events, helping to cheer the Demons to multiple winning seasons. The Demon this year was Chris Browder, who also exuded much spirit from the student body with his lively antics and original stunts.

"The R.J. Reynolds Senior High Dancing Boots"

The Reynolds Dancing Boots is an organization of forty-one girls whose main function is to provide halftime entertainment at football and basketball games. They also participated in a Homecoming project and marched in several parades. Their excellent reputation has been sustained by girls who have been selected on the basis of high kicks, precision, and style. This year the Boots were led by Kim Tolmie as chief, and Linda Patrick, choreographer. Their sponsors are Gay Stelter and Dottie Francis. The "pom-poms" this year were Joey Hayes and Billy Andrew.

The Pep Board Council is one of the most active organizations at Reynolds. The council's main purpose lies in promoting school spirit and encouraging the students here at Reynolds to carry on the traditions for which our school has a reputation. The Pep Board is made up of a chairman, a co-chairman, a treasurer, and nine other members. This year Kelly Wertz was the chairman and Suzanne Hampton was the co-chairman, with Marie Flow as the treasurer. The group is responsible for maintaining and changing the bulletin boards in both Victory Hall on the second floor of the school and the lobby on the first floor. Each week the council presents name tags to all of the athletic participants and coaches.

Sponsored by the Junior Women's Club, Girl's Council has always been an active service club, participating in projects for the benefit of both the school and the community. The club's activities this year included cleaning the parking lot, school grounds, and courtyard; contributing to the March of Dimes; Christmas caroling at Knollwood Hall; playing Bingo with the residents of the Moravian Home; donating to both the toy and canned food drives; and inviting the exchange students to a Christmas party.

In the spring, the girls spent time with the children at the Children's Home and worked at the Nature Science Center. Their major money-making projects were bake sales.

Girl's Council also spent time with their brother club — Key Club — having fun at parties, working on their Homecoming float, enjoying a hay ride, and having dinner at the Palliresa.

R.J.R. Key Club

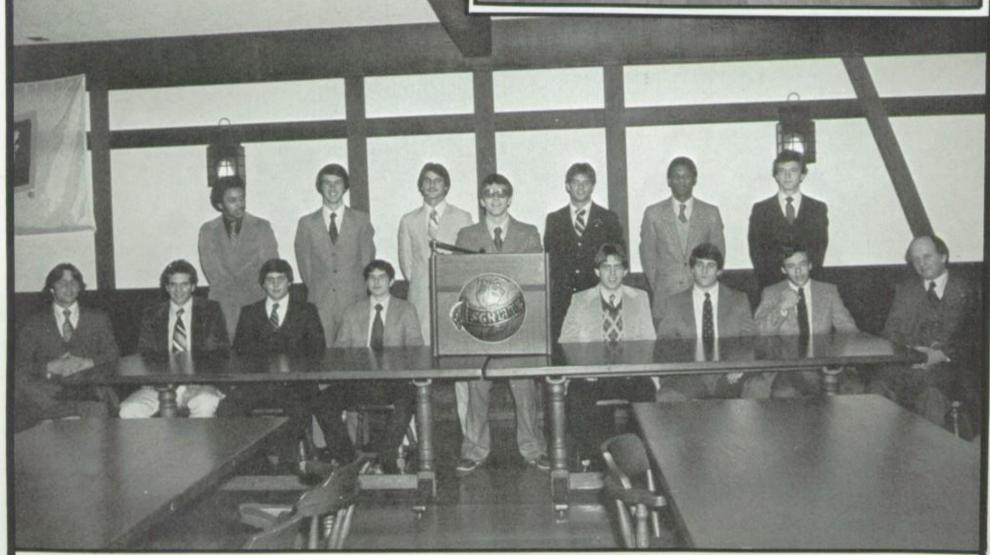

The Reynolds Key Club, sponsored by the international Kiwanis Club, strives to meet some of the needs of the school and the community. The theme this year for all Key Clubs was "Share Togetherness."

Cleaning out the tunnel beneath the auditorium, helping with Crisis Control's food drive at Thanksgiving, raising money for the Special Olympics, and sponsoring a paper drive were among the club's major projects this year.

During the basketball season, Key Club is in charge of selling refreshments at the concession stand. In the Spring, they sponsor the annual Key Club Follies.

The officers this year were (left) Richard Lord — president, Robbie Bach — lieutenant governor, Joe Mainous — vice-president, Tony Leal — treasurer, Dan Dodson — secretary. Roby Walls is the faculty sponsor for the Key Club.

During the 1979-80 school year the Reynolds Girls' Club was active in many projects. Among these were collecting items for Crisis Control, a weekly program at the YWCA helping the handicapped swim, sponsoring a child in Honduros, building a Homecoming project, and helping to clean up the campus.

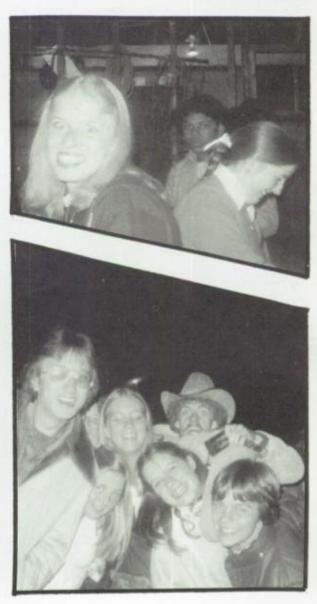

This year the club chose a new faculty advisor, Anne Parker.

The main goal of the club is to provide service for both the school and community.

The purpose of the R. J. Reynolds Junior Civitan Club is to develop new ideas concerning school activities and to make the school a more pleasant place to study and learn. The club has had clean ups around the school campus, in the parking lot, and in front of the school. The senior officers of the club participated in a state convention with other Civitans. The club sold donuts to raise money, as well as participated in Homecoming with the Reynolds Girls' Club.

This year the Demon Girls Service Society held Bake Sales to raise money to sponsor their foster child. They spent many long hours in preparation for follies tryouts. Working with DAC, their highly respected brother club, the girls labored many hours to complete a promising homecoming project. Yes, these truly fine ladies, held their own in a DAC-DGSS football game. Two nights were set aside for the choosing of new members. Nervous girls paraded into a semi-circled grouping of DGSS members. Four seniors and thirteen juniors were chosen after several hours of interviews. Other services performed during the 79-80 school year were cleaning Hawthorne Road, polishing up the trophy case in the lobby, and collecting for the Humane Society.

The duty of the Court is to try all cases involving violations of the Reynolds honor code, all cases involving misdemeanors taking place on school grounds, or any discourteous conduct detracting from the welfare of the school. Led by Peggy Benbow, the Court meets every two weeks to try cases.

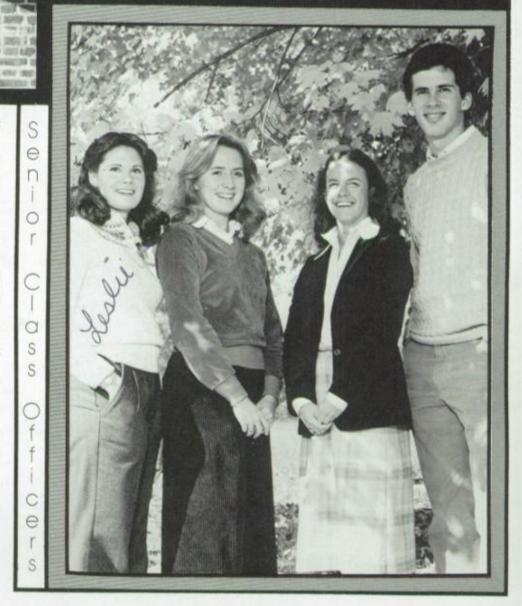

Chosen by the President of the Student Council and the Speaker of the House, the elections committee has to direct all nominations and election procedures. Under the leadership of Peggy Benbow, the committee chooses the students who are to run in the major election, held in the spring of each year, and organizes all procedures leading to the assembly and election itself.

The Senior Executive Committee is a group of senior students chosen by their homerooms to organize and carry out the work concerning graduation and the Thanksgiving activities. Under the direction of Mildred Rash, Pat Britt, and the Senior Class Officers, the committee organizes the printing of diplomas, sizing of caps and gowns, the ordering of announcements, and also plans the Thanksgiving assembly, food drive, and tea for the school custodians. This year's committee received an exceptional donation for the custodians and was also happy to announce another overwhelming collection of canned goods for Crisis Control. They planned a successful and memorable graduation for the Class of 1980.

The House of Representatives

The House of Representatives is an organization of dedicated people who strive to improve the welfare of the students and the appearance of the school. This group of students is elected each fall, one member from each homeroom. The officers of the House are elected each spring by the student body. Some of the projects they have done this year were improving parking conditions and providing activities for the student body.

Demon Football

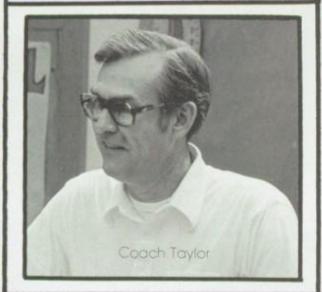

A Tradition of Winning.

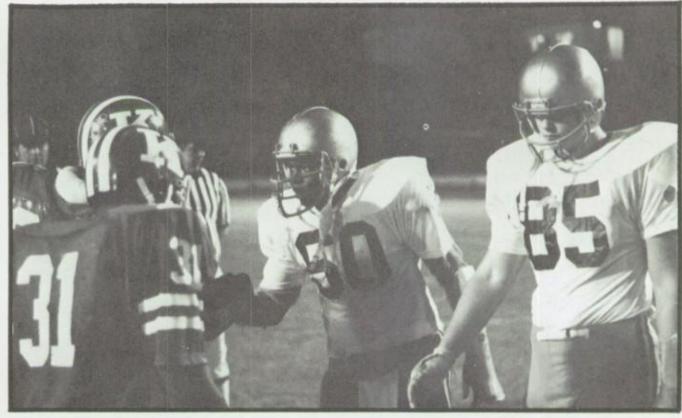

1979-1980

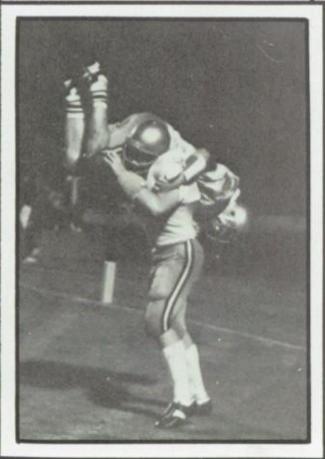

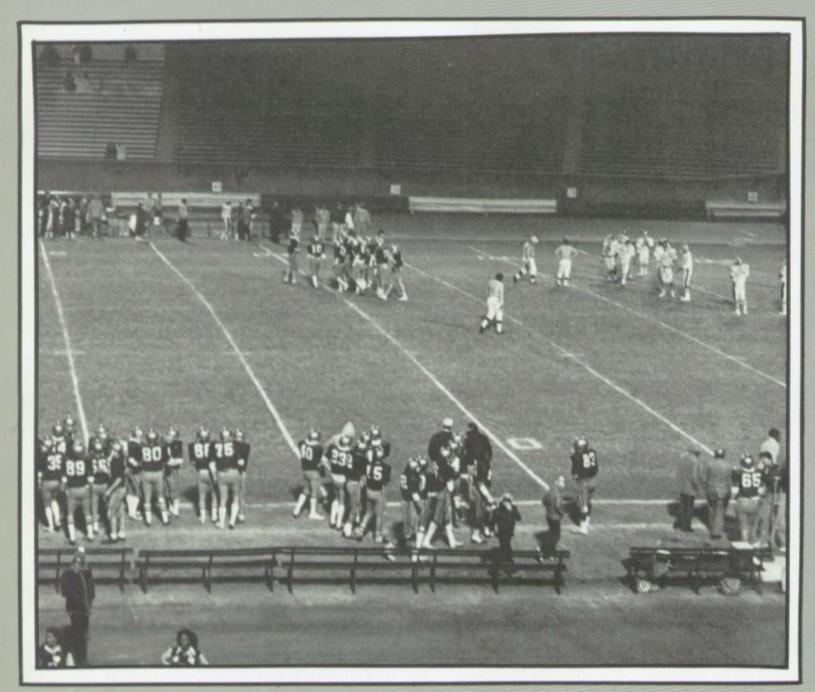

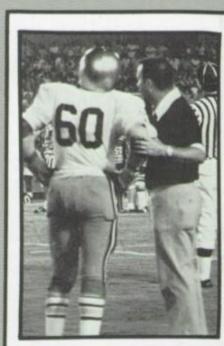

The 1979-80 Reynolds football team finished a hard fought season with a 6-3-1 record. The Black Demons lost two crucial conference games, yet succeeded in being the only team in District 8 to defeat 1979 state champion, High Point Central. Reynolds succumbed to North Forsyth in sudden death overtime in one of the greatest rivalries in Forsyth County. While the team was considered to be one of the most talented in the county, it failed to clinch a playoff berth. At the annual football banquet, following the season, awards for excellence, which were voted on by the players, were given out. Linebacker Norman Bartlett was named the season's Most Valuable Player. Other awards were as follows: Best Offensive Back, Reginald Lamkin; Best Offensive Lineman, John Pack; Best Defensive Back, Tommy Gregg; and Best Defensive Lineman, Steve Peterson. Tight-end Frank Fredere was named to the All-State Team and was invited to play in the annual North Carolina — South Carolina Shrine Bowl.

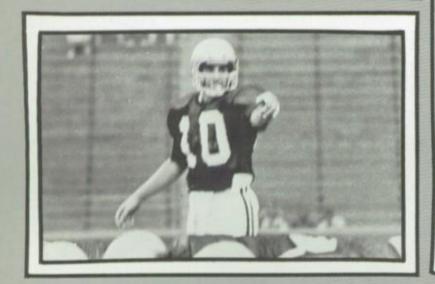

Among the players making the All-City Team were Fredere, Peterson, Gregg, Bartlett, placekicker Eric McCarthy, and Aaron Wardlow.

Reynolds First Year

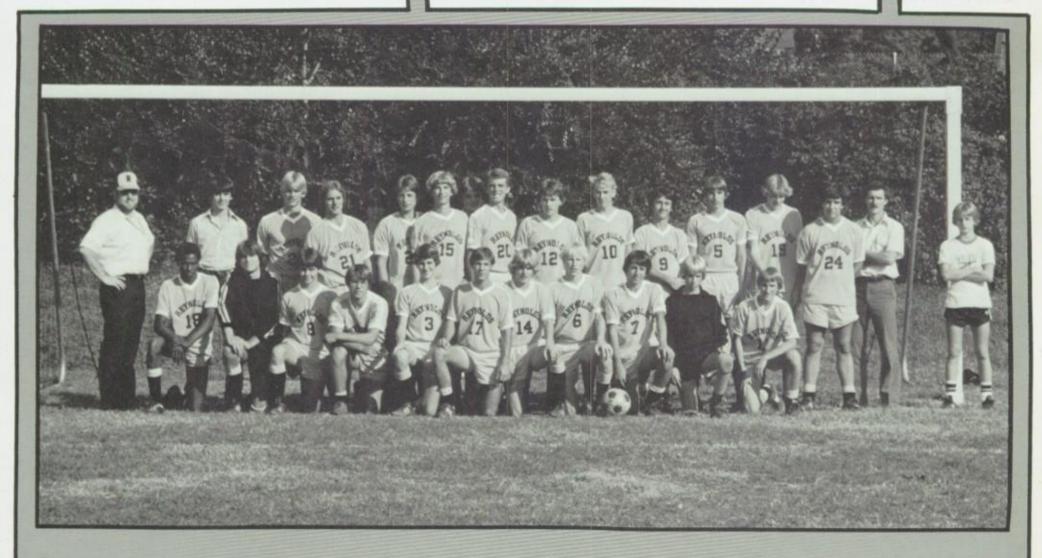

Soccer: Success

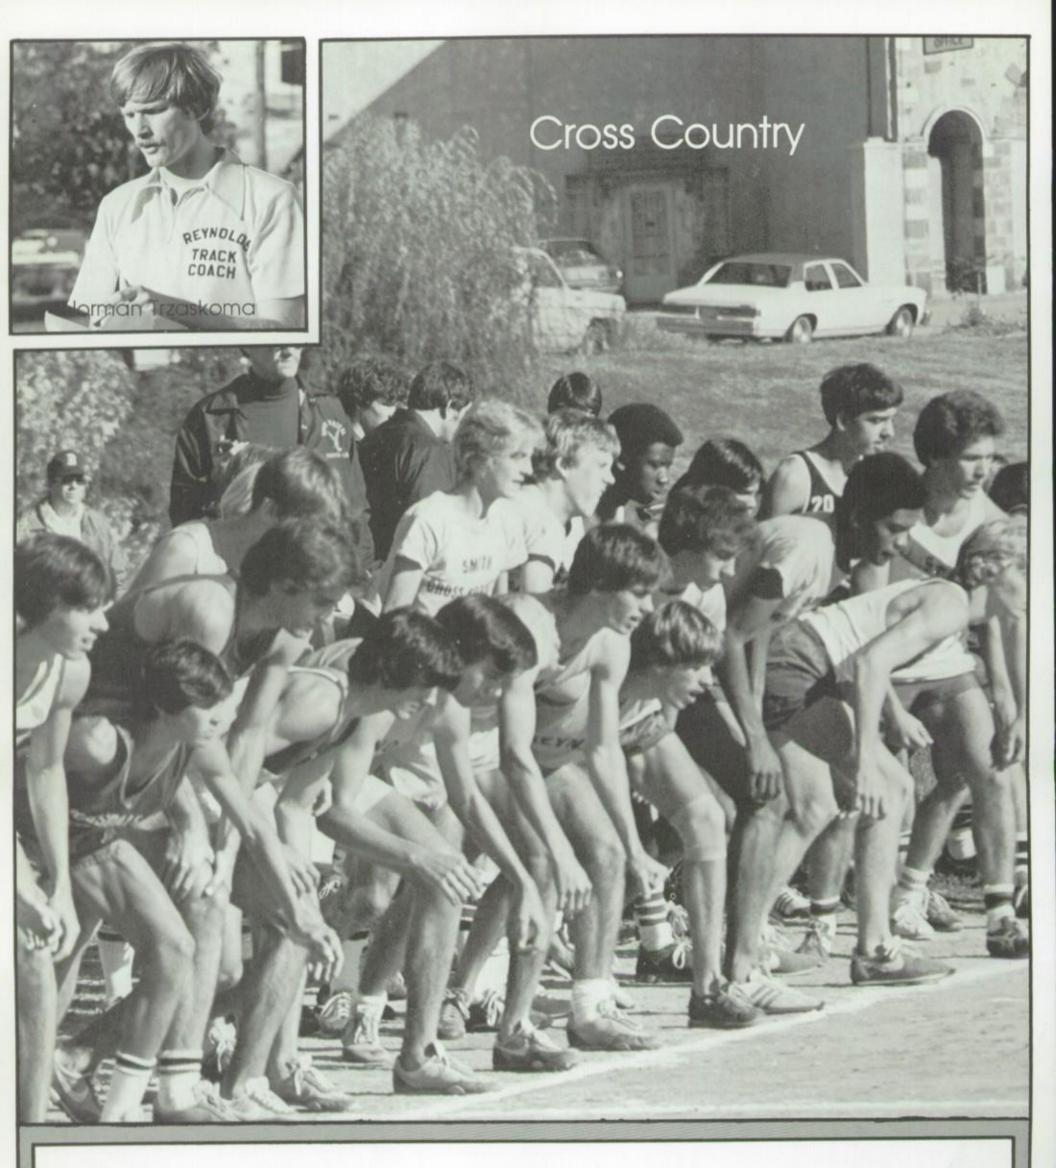

Soccer is a new addition on to the Reynolds sports scene this year, and it added much to the winning tradition in our sports program. In only the first year of competition for the team, it finished third in the conference. Led by John Mallen, Bert Kirk, and Shaun Gervasi, the team's only losses came to state powers Page and Greensboro Grimsley. Four of our eight victories came against county rivals North, East, West, and Parkland. Once again, the Reynolds determination and spirit paved the way to a victorious soccer season.

The R.J. Reynolds Cross Country team finished another successful season, placing second in the state. The team was lead by Tony Leal, who placed first in the state with a time of 15:46.

Coach Trzaskoma said of his team, "I was

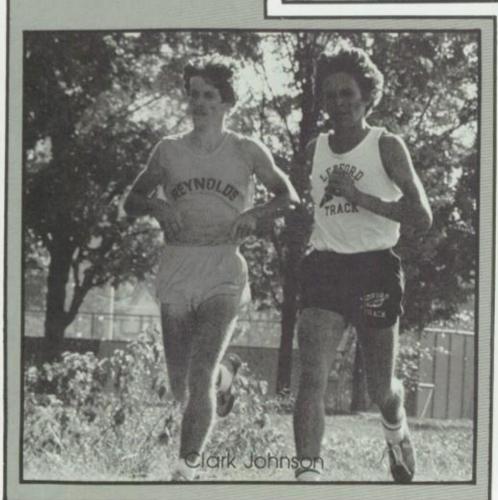

The R.J. Reynolds Cross Country team very proud of the unity the team portrayed, considering the many early season injuries."

The team placed two other runners in the top ten in the state, Mike Sparks and Chip Menck.

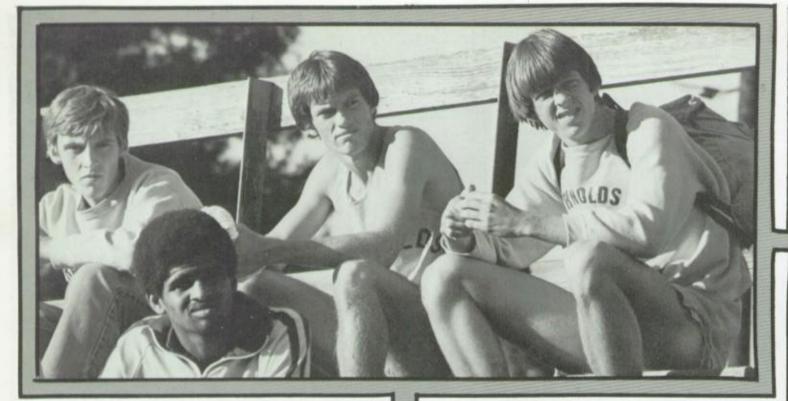

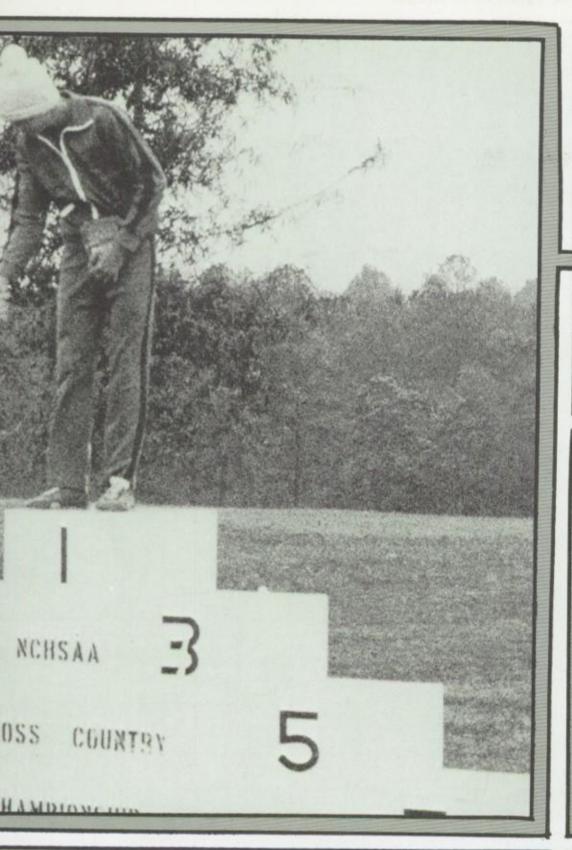

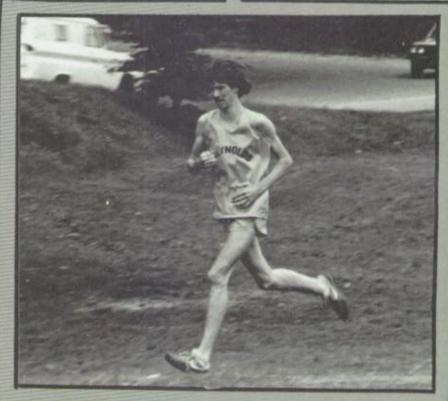

The Cross Country team began their season on August 15, under the supervision of Norman Trzaskoma. The team started their season running 15 miles a day. As the season progressed, the mileage was reduced to an average of 10 miles a day. Trzaskoma held these stringent workouts throughout the summer and fall to prepare the runners for the necessary physical condition needed to compete in the state meet.

The team consisted of many fine runners. Team members chose senior Tony Leal as the Most Valuable Player and Senior Chip Menck as the Most Improved Runner. Clark Johnson was chosen to be the captain of the running Demons.

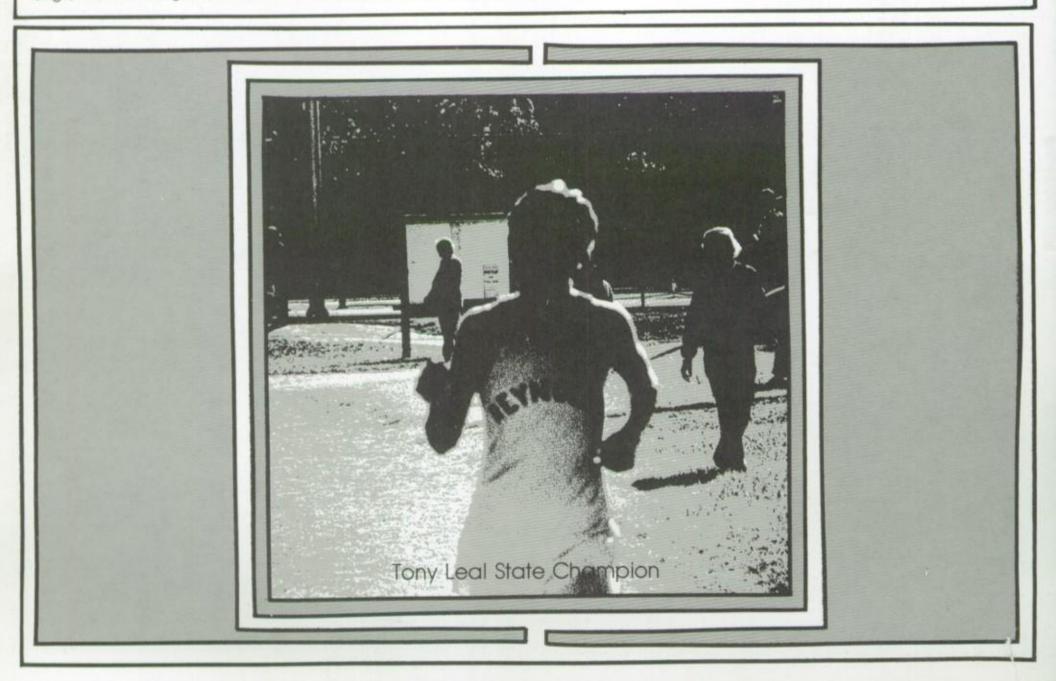

The Demons finished their season with a 66-15 record. Due to early season injuries, the team lost their first dual meet in 49 races to Grimsley by a one-point margin.

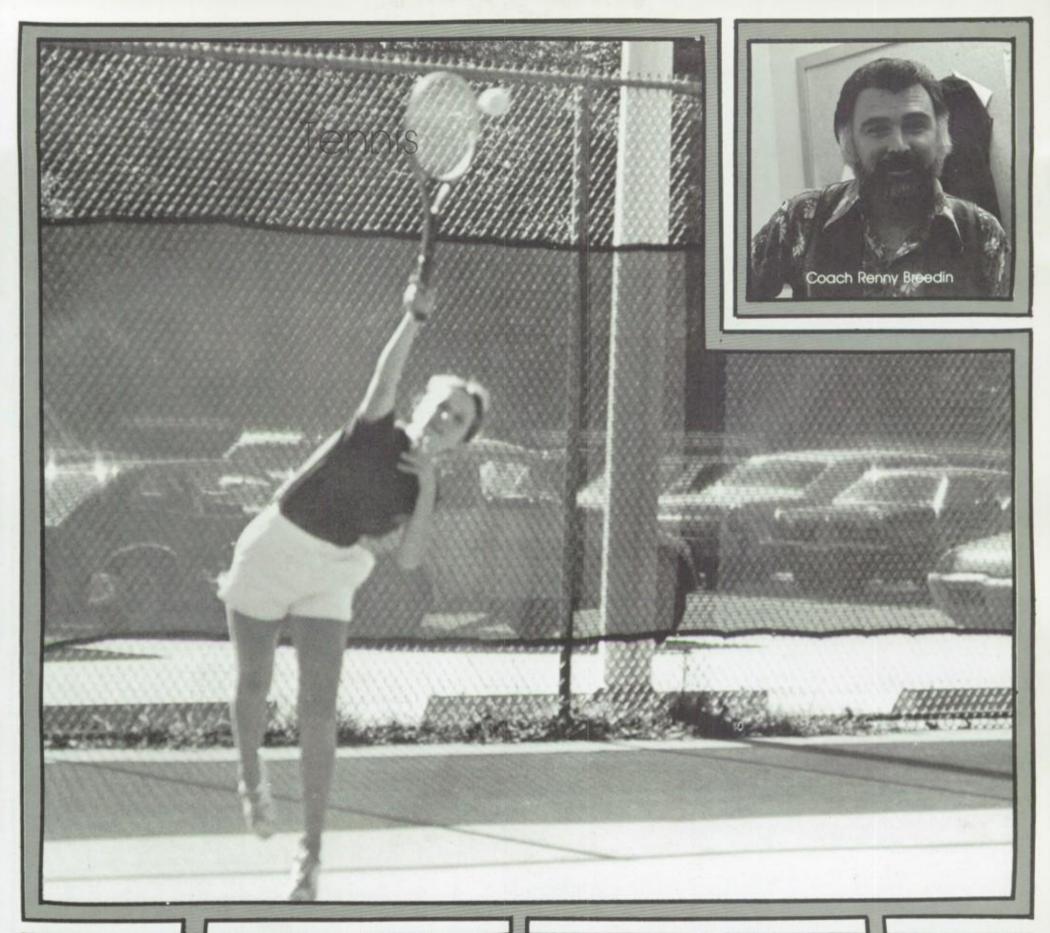

The team competed in a number of races this season, including the City-County Relay race, the District 8, the Sectionals, the State Meet, and regular season races.

Trzaskoma said, "With two juniors, Mike Sparks and David McGee, in the top ten of this year's team, next year's team should be another top contender for the state championship." As for this year's team, he said, "We had a dedicated, unified, fine team."

The Demon girls tennis team put on an awesome performance this season. Under the coaching of Renny Breedin, they defeated every competitor that took them on. The lady Demons completed their season with a 14-0 record.

As a team, the lady Demons successfully won the conference and sectional titles.

The most valuable players were Susan Clements and Kim Christman. The sportsmanship award went to Maria Law. The most improved tennis player award went to Cindy Delastatious.

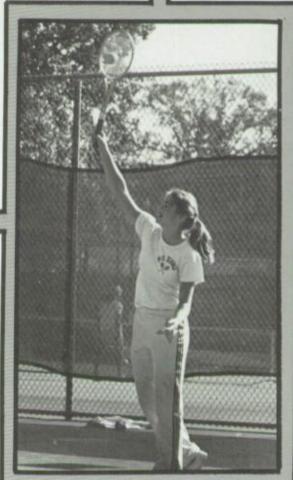

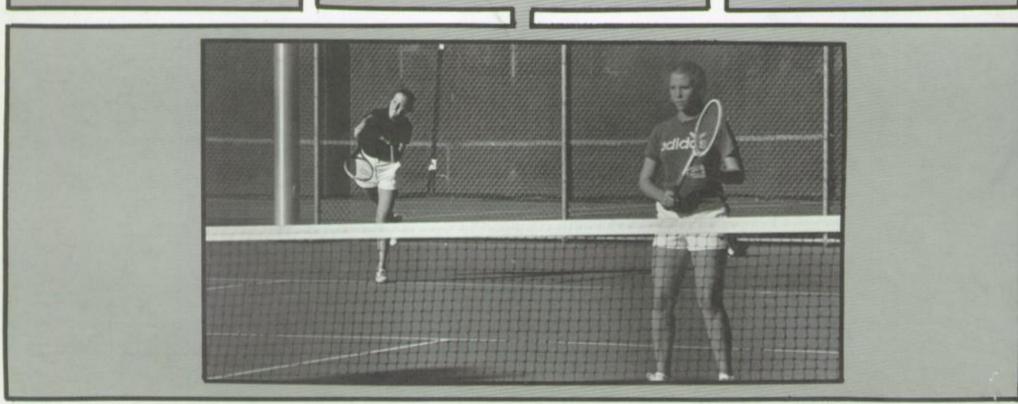

individual Many complishments were reached this year. The number one Doubles team, Susan Clements and Kim Christman, won the sectionals and advanced to the semi-finals in the regionals and quarter finals of the State. The number two RJR doubles team, Ginny Goodwin and Maria Law, reached the semi-finals in the sectional tournament and qualified for the Regionals. Cindy Dellastatious Elizabeth Yost played singles in the sectional tournament. Dellastatious advanced two rounds.

The Reynolds 1979-1980 girls volleyball team had a disappointing season this year. They did show promise as they won two of their last three games. Sporting a very young team, the Lady Demons produced 5 wins and 9 losses overall. During conference play the girls won 3 games and lost 7.

The girls were led by co-captains Sally Chaplin and Penny Johnson. These co-captains also shared the Most Valuable Player award. Theresa Hall received the Most Improved Player award, and Carla Norman received the Sportsmanship award.

Following Reynolds tradition, four of the Lady Demons five victories were against city rivals North Vikings, East Eagles, West Titans, and Parkland Mustangs. With a strong showing at the end of the season the girls showed that the Demons will be back next year to carry on that Reynolds winning tradition.

1979-1980 Demon Varsity Basketball

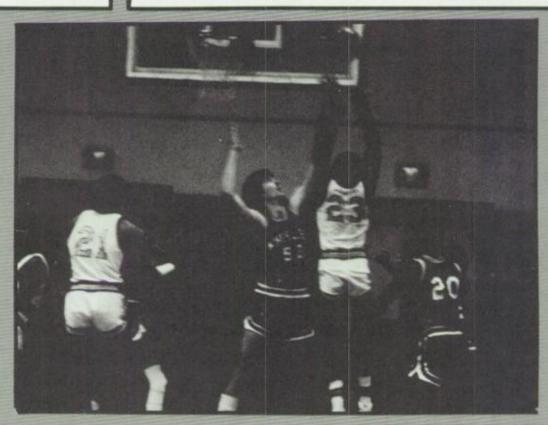

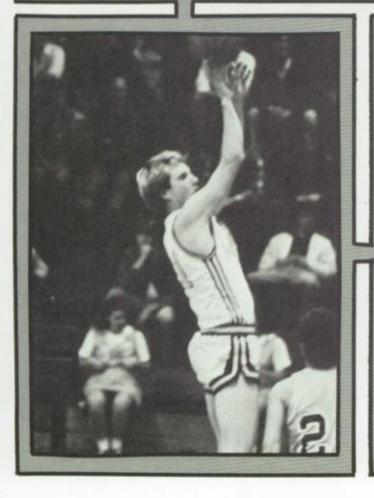

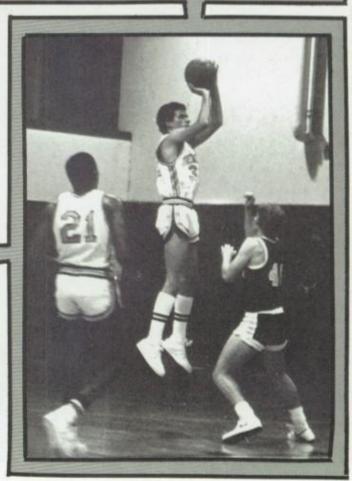

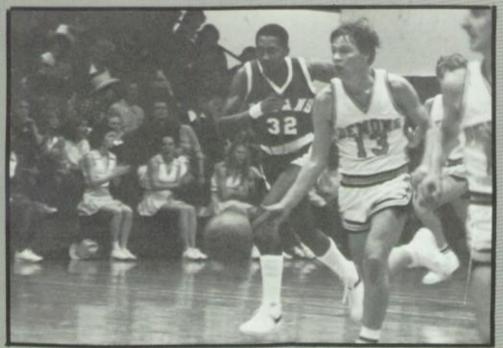

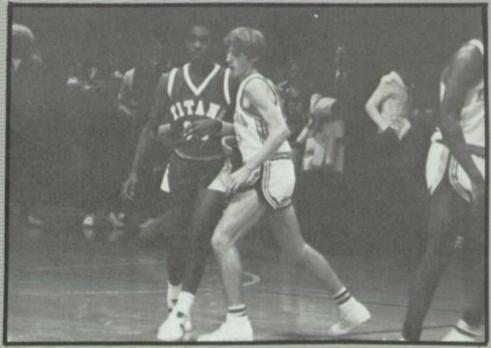

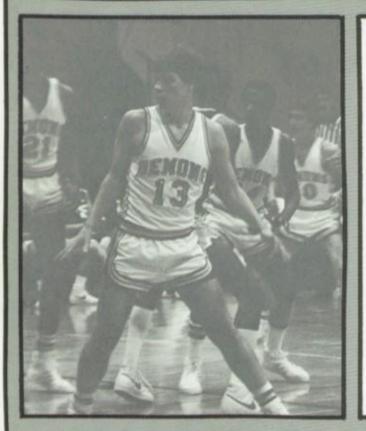

The 1979-1980 Varsity Basketball team had an outstanding year. With an experienced team, the Demons started four seniors, and the team finished second in the District 8 regular season. Coach Rich Habeggar added, "This is our strongest team since the 1975 state champs."

Reg Lamkin and Tommy
Doughton led the patient
Demon offense. However, defense was the key to the season, along with the strong bench.

Besides starters Lampkins, Doughton, Hondros, Archie and Johnson, Reynolds received strong support from Eric Hager, Jerry Greenwood, and Scott Jones.

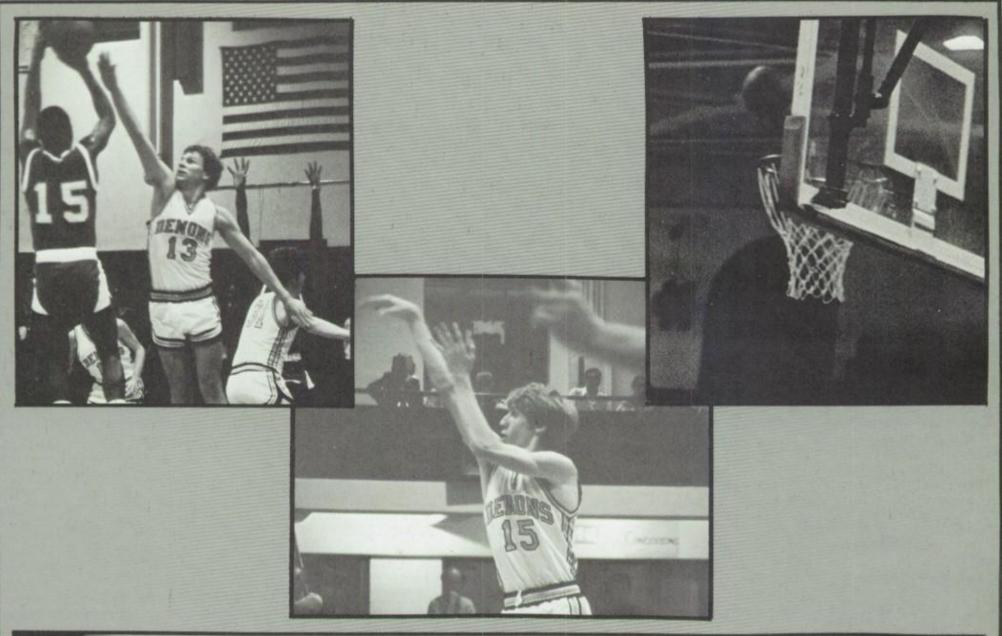

This year has been especially satisfying to Reynolds because of their wins over city rivals East, North, West, and Parkland. With these and other conference victories, the Demons have carried on the tradition of winning at Reynolds campus.

With the return of three juniors, next year's team looks as equally satisfying.

The R. J. Reynolds High School Junior Varsity Basketball team produced an exciting season. Coach Tim Horne led the squad to excellence not only in skill, but in sportsmanship as well.

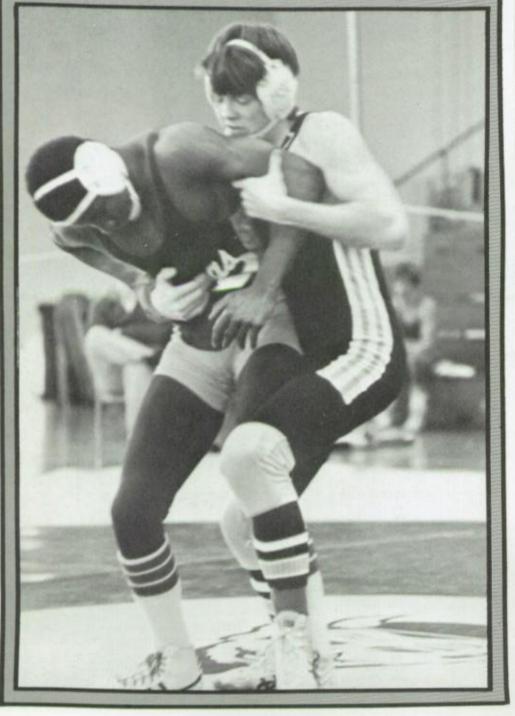

Although they received little student support at the games, the J.V. players remained enthusiastic. Reynolds can look forward to an equally spectacular season next year.

The 1979-1980 Reynolds wrestling team turned out another successful year. After a season opening loss to South Stokes, Reynolds ran off eleven consecutive regular season victories. Included in those victories were wins over West, East, North and Parkland. Reynolds was also ranked in the top five in the Northwest wrestling poll for most of the season. Along with regular season victories, Reynolds won the District 8 tournament. Leading the way were district champs Eric Fippinger, Robert Baron, Stephon Poplin, and Mike Malone.

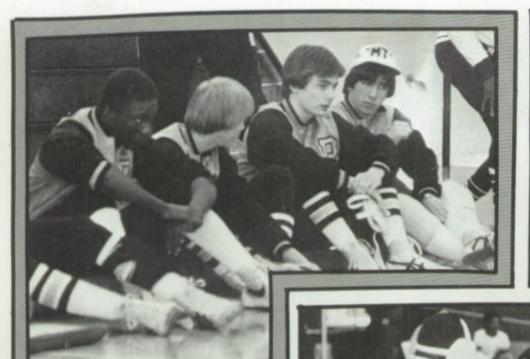

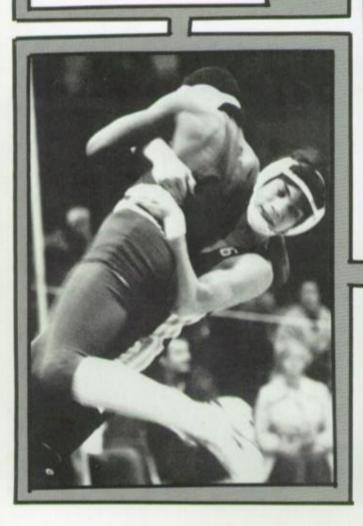

Reynolds also had many second place finishers in the District Tournament:

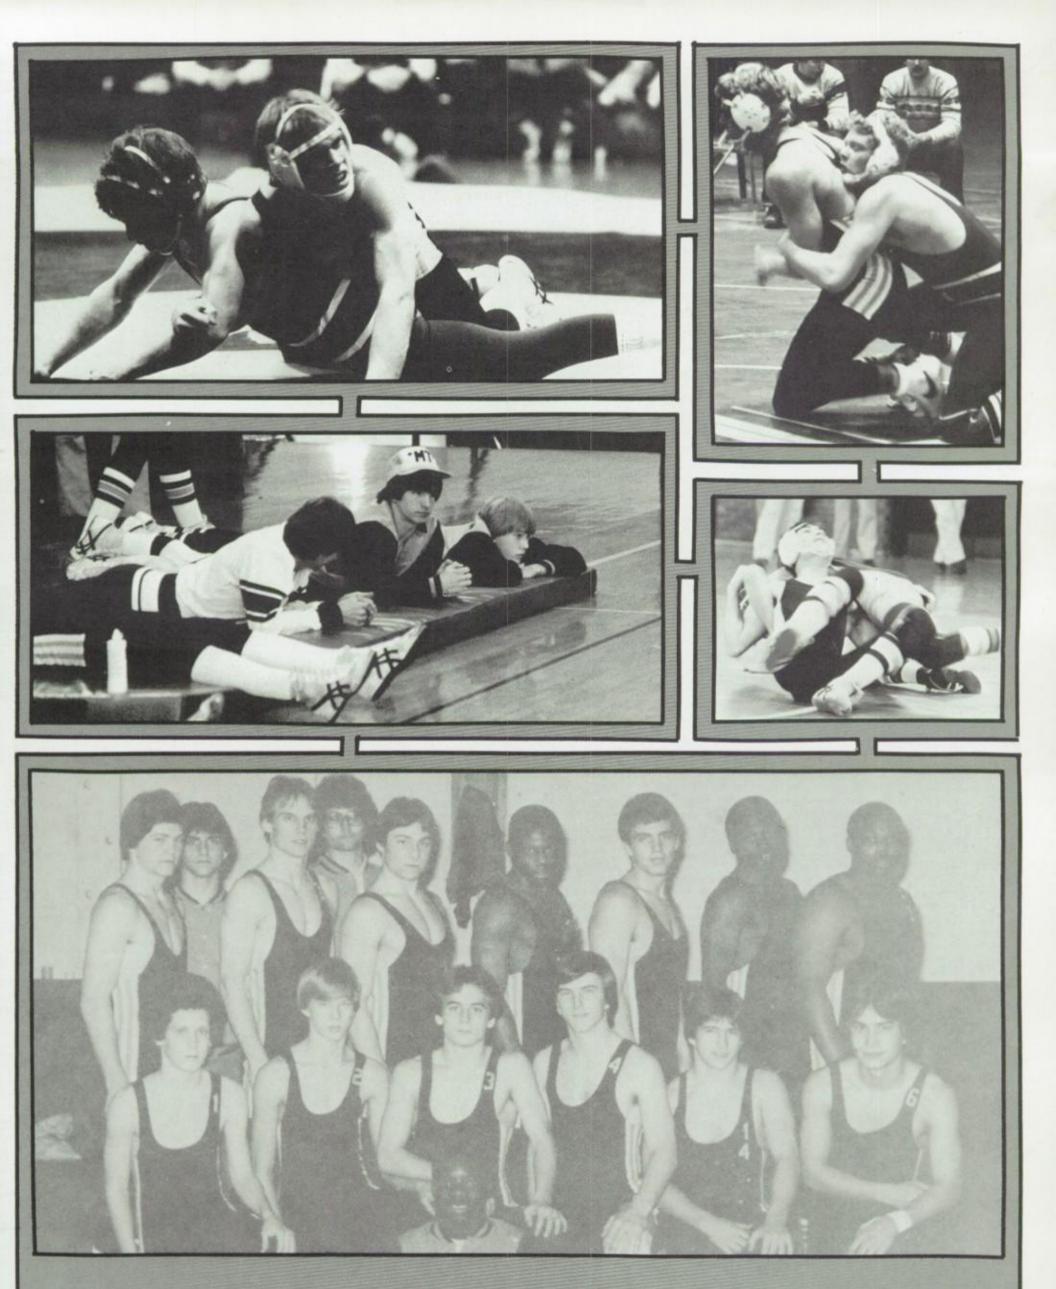

Graham Summerson, Eric McKay, Chris Linville, Norman Bartlett and Richard Lord.

In the Sectionals, which were also held at Reynolds, Fippenger finished first. The remainder of the team also finished with high scores.

Swimming and Diving

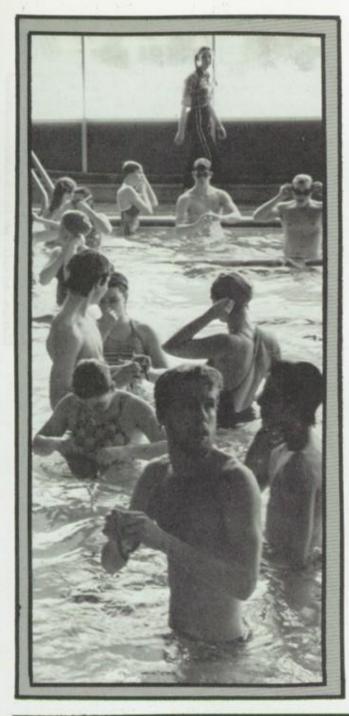

Hard work, determination, team spirit and group support have improved the quality of our Swim Team.

The R.J. Reynolds 1979-1980 Swimming-Diving teams had an excellent season this year. The team followed the coaching authority of Dottie Swanko. Both teams improved over previous years in skills, as well as in speed.

The Diving team finished number 1 in the state. Both swimming teams finished in the top ten.

In individual accomplishments, Scott Eagle was the number one men's diver in the state; Catherine Cole, the number 1 women's diver in the state. Other top ten finishers were Donna Small and Mary Beth Fisher. Jess Perry received recognition in the 50 and 100 free style, Neil Mobley: 100 fly, 200 free, Allison Lloyd; 100 fly and 50 free, and Page Pegram; 200 free, 300 free. Many of these athletes will be returning next year.

The Demon Girls
Basketball team suffered a disappointing season this year with their conference record being 4-6.

Coach Love has worked hard to build the team's endurance as well as offense and defensive strategies.

The team, under the leadership of captains Leanne Cartee and Julie Hooker, portrayed a strong ambition to play and a desire to win.

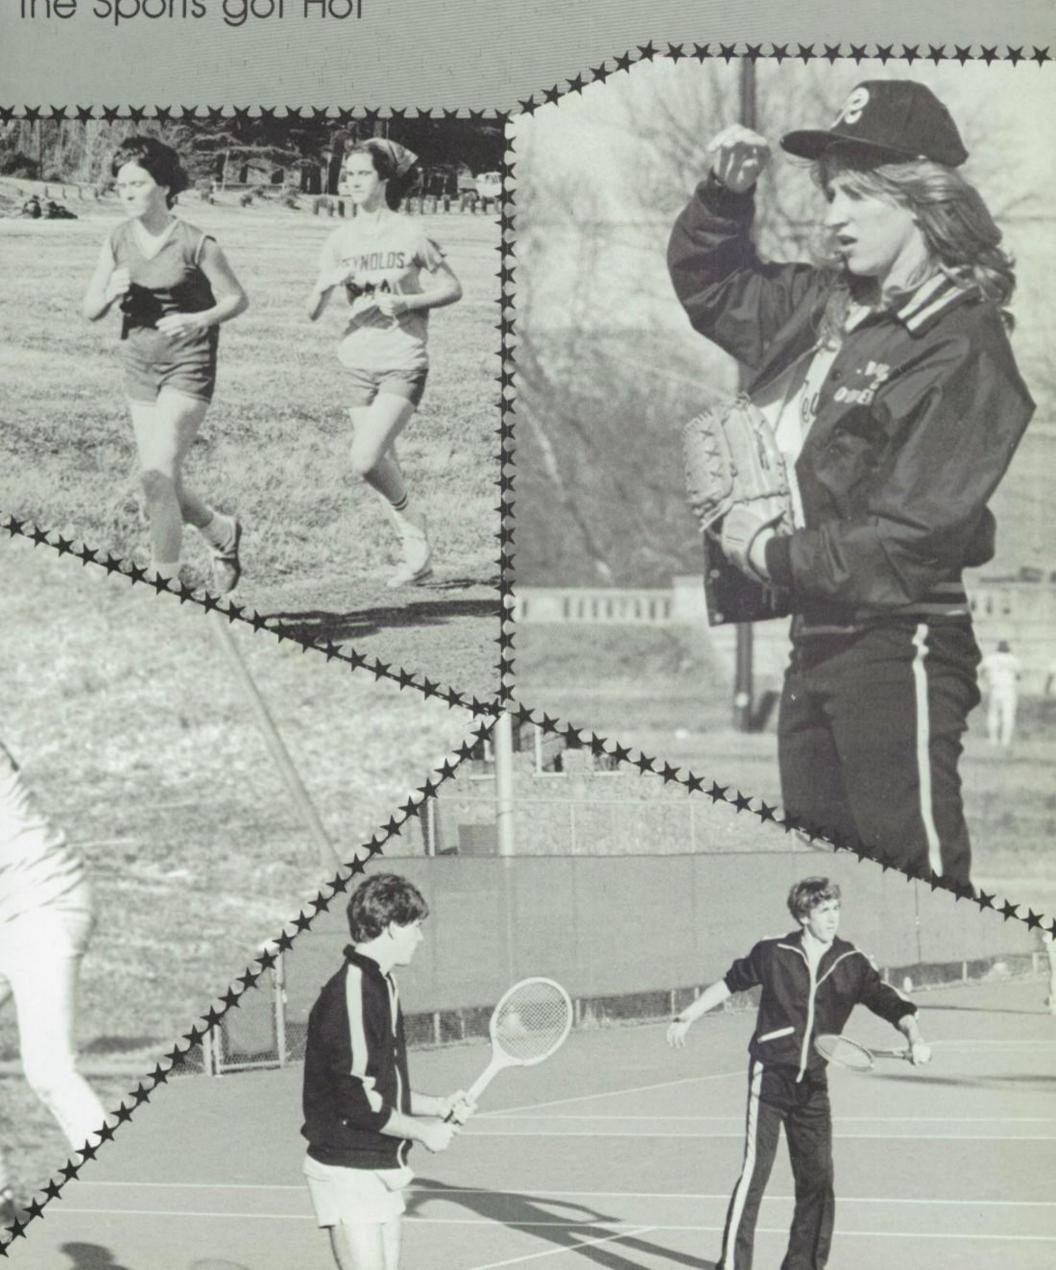

With the return of many juniors to next year's team, the Demon Girls should again carry on the pride of Reynolds victory.

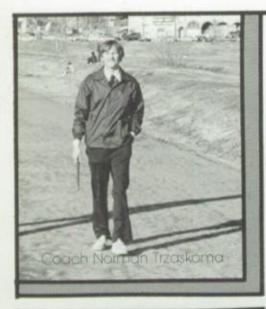

As the Spring got warm,

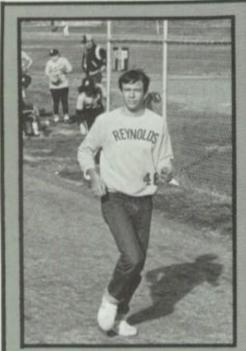

the Sports got Hot

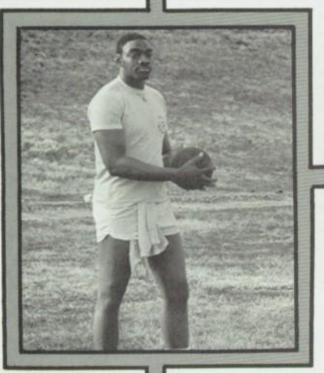

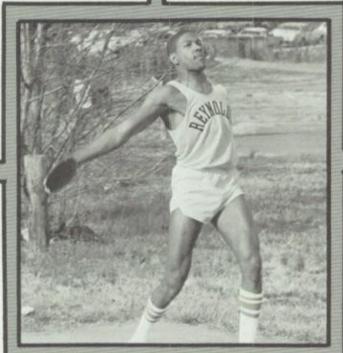

This year's 1980 track team consisted of outstanding athletes in almost every event. The distance events were carried by former cross-country runners Tony Leal, Mike Sparks, Brian Dahlberg, Chris Thackston, Jeff Gunnell, John Hammond, John Andrews, and the McGee Brothers. The field events had strong showings with Reginald Lamkins, Marvin Weaks, and Kenny Coleman. Albert Eaton, Nathan Simms, and Rodney Harris all had fine performance in the hurdles. The sprinters and short distance men also put on fine performances with victories in almost every event. With the help of the many Juniors on this year's team, next year's team should be another top contender.

Coach Trzaskoma said of his team, "They're the best."

Opening the season with a 9-0 victory over the West Forsyth Titans, the Demons Tennis team showed their strength early. Coach Clark Taylor said of his team, "I have coached fine teams in previous years but never one with as much potential as this year's team." Taylor accounted this year's success to the fact of such a fine junior squad. Taylor went on to say, "Five of the top six starters are juniors." The top six players, Craig Peatross, Jamie Bean, Jimmie Bullock, Dean Polk, Steve Hayes, and John Love, combined with the remainder of the team for victory after victory to add an additional link to the chain of winning as a Demon tradition.

Coach Herman Bryson fielded another strong Reynolds Golf team. The Demons needed the experience of returning lettermen David Peddycord and Jay Perry. Other qualifiers for the Demons included four freshmen, four juniors, and one additional senior. The addition of these Freshmen gave Reynolds the needed support to have another successful season on the greens.

The girl's softball team completed another successful season this year. With the combination of experienced seniors and talented juniors, coaches Rich Habegger and Will Alexander developed a winning series. The team opened their season with an impressive 11-7 win over the West Forsyth Titans. From then on the Lady Demon Softball team showed their strength in the city as well as the District Eight.

Coach Alexander commented on the team, "This team has a lot of potential; the girls portrayed the spirit of the Reynolds Demon during every game."

With the experience gained from this year's juniors, next year's team looks equally as exciting.

Stump, Jeane Allison (manager). Front Row: Anne Toole, Julie Hooker Tanya Johnson, Leeanne Cartee, Lois Deak, Joanle Beck, Sharon Mason Kim Penn.

This is the first Reynolds Girls Soccer team since the 1940's. Their season this year determined the future of the program. There were no playoffs this year with the schedule consisting of six teams being played twice.

Coach Spear expected the best of his athletes, with excellence and determination displayed in their performance. Spear considered their strength to be their young team, being fast and determined to prove themselves.

Captained by Blandy Fisher, the team looked forward to a successful season, demonstrated by the performance of some of the individual standouts. Allison Lippard, the center forward, and top scorers, Anne Glenn and Lacy James, and Peggy Shugart, goalie, made an excellent show.

ran Fishel, Alyson Ripple, Lacy James, Peggy Shugart, Beth Warren. Nancy Sneishire, Celestes Beahy, Ashley Dale, Donna Stoddard, Anne Glenn.

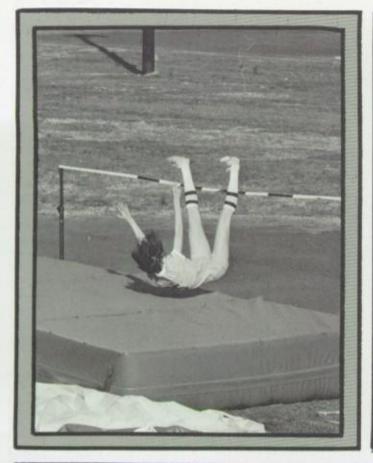

Due to the size of the girls track team, many girls had to participate in several events. The team spent many hours of hard practice to perfect their skills. The team carried the Demon tradition of spirit throughout the season.

With the many fine juniors on this year's team, next year's team looks very promising . . .

Amid the pines she proudly stands, to her our voices rise -

Reynolds, like many high schools, has a special song, the Alma Mater. Reynolds students express their love and respect for their school by proudly standing to sing the Alma Mater after every athletic or special event. Even the school's athletes, returning from an "away" contest, stand on the buses to sing the Alma Mater upon arrival at the school.

Why would a group of teenagers do this? They want to be a part of a Demon tradition that has been a part of Reynolds since Tommye Ring wrote the Alma Mater in 1949. Thousands of past students shared those short moments spent in song, yet it is the present class who keeps it alive.

Soon, the class of '80 will be gone. There will be new faces at Reynolds and this song will burn in their hearts. As the years go by, the Alma Mater will become to this year's graduating class a memory of past youth and devotion.

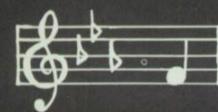

We always shall love her, Dear old Reynolds High.

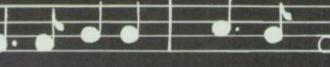

Are our high school years actually reaching a close? Yes — we would be foolish not to admit that it is time to move on. But there are new beginnings.

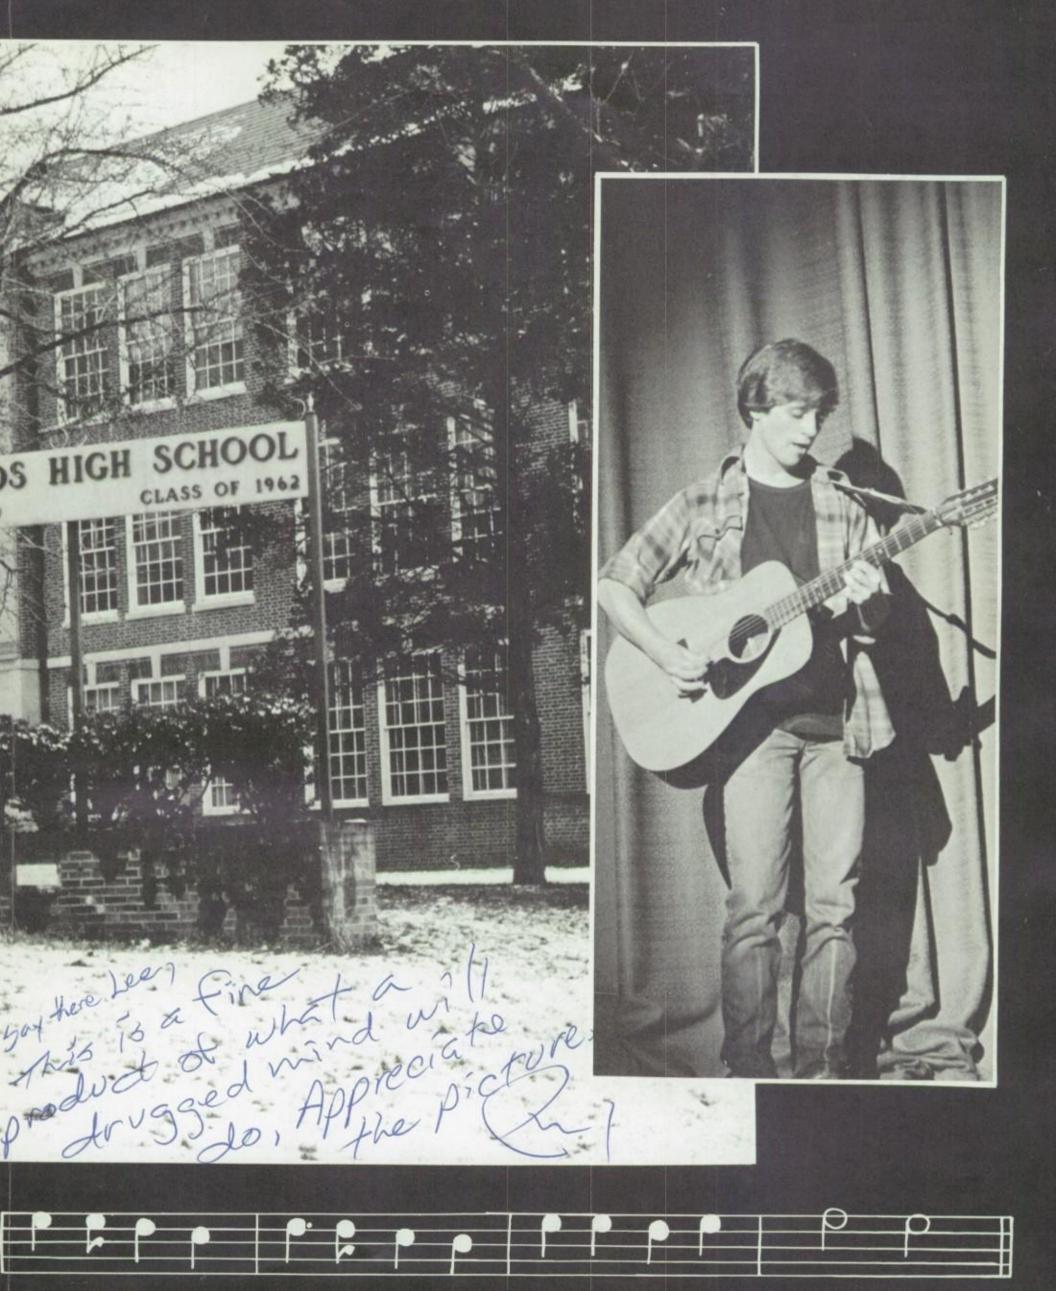

Our school of great tradition, Gives us all ambition,

Alma Mater, Alma Mater, Hail our Alma Mater!

If anyone can look at this annual and see more than just snapshots and lines in print, then this chapter is a success. I say chapter because the Black and Gold is an unfinished book that began in 1923. The 1980 edition is just the new summit in an ongoing epic.

To me that is the purpose of working on the annual — to document our past and not let all that the Class of 1980 has accomplished slip into nothingness. Simply, the annual is a material memory on paper.

Now that I am at the close of twelve years of high school I find myself at a loss for words. All that could be said has been said before. I do owe alot to my parents, more than I will ever be able to express here. It looks like all the people I have become close to are going away, but that can't be helped.

I believe that it is important to remember what we have learned here and who has shaped our personalities, for this determines our future. For myself it seems that we may not always get what we want but what we deserve, and I believe the key to personal achievement is to make what we want what we deserve. Take care.

Lu hubon

Being co-editor of this yearbook has been one of the most gratifying experiences of my life. To see the culmination of months of creative efforts published is exhilarating! With tremendous help from our staff, Lee and I have created a book which captures forever the 1979-1980 year at Reynolds High School. Looking back, I do not think I could ever thank my friend at Wake or Phyllis Dunning enough for recommending me, thus, opening the door for the opportunity of a lifetime.

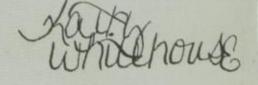

There are many other persons for whom I am grateful. I will refrain from listing names for fear I will leave someone out. Those of you who have shared my high school years, contributing to my growth and being true friends, I thank you. Every smile and every tear are cherished memories. Memories

It is hard to believe that my final year of high school is coming to a close. In a few months, I will be in a new world far from R.J.R. Saying good-bye is the hardest part. But ahead lie new friends, new experiences, a whole world full of opportunities. I want to wish you all the best of luck as we leave Reynolds and begin the next chapter in our lives. May God bless you.
